Re: United States vs Alex Norman
Criminal No. CR-S-95-184--ECR

Dear Mr. Norman:

Please be advised that the liability to pay criminal restitution lasts twenty years plus any period of incarceration or until the death of the defendant. Upon review of your judgment of December 18, 1997, you were ordered to pay this restitution in full immediately. You have an outstanding balance due of $1,413,553.33, which has not had a payment on it since September of 2008. If we do not receive your payment of $250.00 by June 30, 2010, we will be forced to proceed with the legal remedies allowed for the collection of the full amount due. If this payment is made, we will accept monthly payments of $250.00 for now, due the 15th of the month, until the debt is paid.

Understand that the government does not agree to accept installment payments for the duration of the debt. You may at any time be requested to provide this office with current financial information. At that time payments may be increased or decreased, and the government may use any and all collection methods to collect the debt in its entirety. This judgment may be collected by garnishing your wages or by levying on your personal property. Any acceptance of installment payments is not an agreement that you may continue to make installments until the debt is fully paid.

If you are currently represented by counsel, forward this letter to your attorney and have him/her contact this office within ten days from the date of this letter. If no answer is received within such time frame, we will assume that you are not represented by counsel.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 388-6281.

Sincerely,

Daniel G. Bogden
United States Attorney

NOTICE TO JUDGMENT DEBTOR ON
HOW TO CLAIM EXEMPTIONS

This post-judgment enforcement has been issued on request of the United States of America.

The law provides that certain property and wages cannot be taken. Such property is said to be exempted. This Notice lists the exemptions under federal law and your state law. There is no exemption solely because you are having difficulty paying your debts.

If the United States of America as creditor is asking that your wages be withheld, seventy-five percent (75%) of your disposable earnings are automatically exempt. That is, only twenty-five percent (25%) of your disposable earnings may be taken, calculated by deducting the following deductions from your gross wages per pay period: Federal income taxes, Social Security (F.I.C.A.), state income taxes, state disability insurance, and payments to public employee retirement systems. The law limits garnishment to 25% of the debtor's disposable earnings or the amount by which disposable earnings for the week exceeds thirty times the federal minimum hourly wage, whichever is less. See 15 U.S.C. § 1673(A). You do not need to file a claim for exemptions to receive this exemption, but if you believe the wrong amount is being withheld, you may file a claim for exemption.

If you believe that the money or property about to be taken from you is exempt, you should (i) fill out the claim for exemption form, (ii) sign and notarize, and (iii) deliver or mail the form to the clerk's office of this court and send a copy to the counsel for the United States. This must be done within 20 days after this notice of execution was served. You have a right to a hearing within five business days, or as soon as practicable, from the date you file your claim with the court.

If you request a hearing, you should come to court ready to explain why your property is exempted, and you should bring any documents which may help you prove your case. If you do not come to court at the designated time and prove that your property is exempt, you may lose some of your rights.

It may be helpful to you to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter.

CLAIM FOR EXEMPTION FORM
EXEMPTIONS UNDER FEDERAL LAW (18 U.S.C. § 3613)

NOTE: 18 U.S.C. § 3613(a), the federal statute governing liens arising from criminal fines and restitution obligations, generally incorporates the exemptions available to individual taxpayers under the Internal Revenue Service Code.

I claim that the exemption(s) from enforcement which are checked below apply in this case:

- _____ 1. Wearing apparel and school books.—Such items of wearing apparel and such school books as are necessary for the debtor or for members of his family.

- ____ 2. Fuel, provisions, furniture, and personal effects.--So much of the fuel, provisions, furniture, and personal effects in the Debtor's household, and of the arms for personal use, livestock, and poultry of the debtor, as does not exceed $8,230 in value.
- ____ 3. Books and tools of a trade, business, or profession.--So many of the books, and tools necessary for the trade, business, or profession of the debtor as do not exceed in the aggregate $4,120 in value.
- ____ 4. Unemployment benefits.--Any amount payable to an individual with respect to his unemployment (including any portion thereof payable with respect to dependents) under an unemployment compensation law of the United States, of any State, or of the District of Columbia or of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
- ____ 5. Undelivered mail.--Mail, addressed to any person, which has not been delivered to the addressee.
- ____ 6. Certain annuity and pension payments.--Annuity or pension payments under the Railroad Retirement Act, benefits under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act, special pension payments received by a person whose name has been entered on the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Coast Guard Medal of Honor roll (38 U.S.C. 1562), and annuities based on retired or retainer pay under Chapter 73 of Title 10 of United States Code.
- ____ 7. Workmen's Compensation.--Any amount payable with respect to compensation (including any portion thereof payable with respect to dependents) under a workmen's compensation law of the United States, any State, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.
- ____ 8. Judgments for support of minor children.--If the debtor is required by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, entered prior to the date of levy, to contribute to the support of his minor children, so much of his salary, wages, or other income as is necessary to comply with such judgment.
- ____ 9. Certain service-connected disability payments.-- Any amount payable to an individual as a service-connected (within the meaning of section 101(16) of Title 38, United States Code) disability benefit under--(A) subchapter II, III, IV, V, or VI of Chapter 11 of such Title 38 or (B) Chapter 13, 21, 23, 31, 32, 34, 35, 37, or 39 of such Title 38.
- ____ 10. Assistance under Job Training Partnership Act.--Any amount payable to a participant under the Job Training Partnership Act (29 U.S.C. 1501 et seq.) from funds appropriated pursuant to such Act.
- ____ 11. Minimum exemptions for wages, salary and other income. The exemptions under 26 U.S.C. § 6334(a)(9) do not apply in criminal cases. The exceptions under the Consumer Credit Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1673, for disposable earnings, automatically apply and do not need to be claimed. The aggregate disposable earnings of an individual for any workweek which is subjected to garnishment may not exceed (1) 25 % of his disposable earnings for that week, or (2) the amount by which his disposable earnings for that week exceed thirty times the Federal minimum hourly wage in effect at the time the earnings are payable, whichever is less.

Check on this form which exemption from enforcement you are claiming, and attach to the Affidavit of Exemptions and Request for Hearing, along with copies of your documentation. The completed Affidavit with attachments must be signed, notarized and filed with the Clerk of the Court.

Within 20 days after this notice of execution was served, you must either mail or deliver this notarized form in person to:
